

MOTHER AND SIX LITTLE ONES NEED ASSISTANCE

Times-Dispatch Will Raise $180 for Relief of Needy Richmond Family.

FOURTH FUND GOES OVER TOP

Dr. Buchanan Writes Appreciatively Acknowledging Receipt of $161.75 for Help of Destitute Mother and Two Children.

Another fund to aid a poor woman with six children who are in a destitute condition will be raised through The Times-Dispatch. Two of the children are sick and it is necessary to send them to a hospital in order to insure their recovery.

Not long ago the father of this family, after having become demoralized through drinking, was sentenced by the courts to the State Institution for Inebriates. Since his departure only the struggles of the little woman have stood between her children and actual want.

Doctors say he has become a nervous wreck and some of the worry of supporting her family must be lifted from her shoulders. The family has been kept together until they are given a new lease on life and the sick ones are nursed back to health for $150, by expending this sum wisely.

Report of Investigator.
The investigator of the case says:
"The mother has been a faithful, long-suffering wife. The children are bright, attractive and well behaved.
They stand well in school. The husband and father has been sentenced to a term of treatment at the State Institution for Inebriates, and the case will last about three months."

Contributions for this fund will be received by The Times-Dispatch at once and as soon as the fund is raised will be used for the benefit of the family.

It is hoped to raise the funds necessary within a week, considering the urgency of the case. The fund for the relief of the poor woman and her two children who are in destitute circumstances through the continued illness of the husband and father has been oversubscribed three sympathetic citizens sent in contributions yesterday.
This raises the total to $161.75. The case is now closed.

Contributions were:

Letter from Dr. Buchanan, general secretary of the Associated Charities, acknowledges the receipt of the fourth fund which was raised by The Times-Dispatch in the following letter:

"Please accept our acknowledgment of check $161.75 for $161.75 to be applied on the Times-Dispatch relief fund case No. 4, the sick husband and dependent family.
"You will be pleased to learn that we have been able to pay the rent, grocery bill and other items of expressing nature. The regular needs of the family are being met and the worry from the stress of circumstances has been relieved. The husband is still in the hospital, but the mother is holding the home together and is delighted at the prospect of being able to care for him as soon as he is able to return to his home."

DR. CARRINGTON RESTING WELL AFTER OPERATION

Widely Known Physician Expected to Recover Rapidly After Going Under Knife at Hospital.

After undergoing an operation yesterday morning at 10 o'clock for duo-denal ulcer, Dr. Charles V. Carrington was reported as resting unusually well last night. The operation was performed by Dr. Shelton Horsley at St.
Elizabeth's Hospital.

After watching the reaction to the operation last night, physicians at St.
Elizabeth's stated that the chances for the recovery of Dr. Carrington within four or five weeks were very good.

Dr. Carrington has been ill for more than a month, and has spent the last two weeks in the hospital. A month ago he underwent an operation requiring transfusion of blood, after having lost a great deal of blood by an internal hemorrhage.

For many years Dr. Carrington was the State Penitentiary physician. He is widely known throughout Virginia.

TO SIFT MASS OF TESTIMONY IN TROLLEY LINE INQUIRY

Federal Electric Railways Commission Concludes Hearing of Witnesses in Profit Investigation.

(By Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—The Federal Electric Railways Commission, appointed by President Wilson to investigate the serious financial plight of the trolley lines of the nation, concluded its hearings today and will begin next week sifting the mass of testimony gathered during the last two months in order to frame its report and recommendations.

Those heard at the final session were Joseph B. Eastman, of the Interstate Commerce Commission; M. T. Matthei, formerly public service commissioner in New York City; Edward W. Hemis, of Chicago, and Oscar Basley, of Philadelphia, representing the United Business Men's Association of that city.

TWO ARRESTS ARE MADE IN COOPER MURDER CASE

Gardener Is Held Pending Further Investigation of Discovered Clues Alleged to Be Damaging—Negro Says He Saw Him in Automobile on Night of Crime.

(By Associated Press.)
NASHVILLE, TENN., Oct. 4.—Two arrests were made today in connection with the murder of Robin J. Cooper, who was eight years ago acquitted of the murder of former United States Senator Edward W. Carmack.

Dennis E. Metcalf, gardener at the Cooper home, who previously had been charged with the crime and released on bond, was again arrested after Steve Pulham, a negro witness, told of passing the Cooper automobile on the night of the tragedy and seeing two men near it. One of the men was so near him he plainly recognized him as Metcalf, he said.

Thomas E. Jennings, of a prominent Nashville family, was arrested and charged with being accessory to the crime as the result of a warrant sworn out by Gabriel Hansen, psychoanalytical detective.

Metcalf was secretly held for hours until his attorneys secured his release on a habeas corpus writ. During the proceedings Charles Gilbert, Assistant Attorney-General, asserted that the State had important information bearing on the relations of Metcalf to the crime which could not be disclosed. The other man, Fiddie, claims to have seen at the car will soon be arrested, officers said. It is claimed Jennings wrote an anonymous letter to newspapers and officials after the crime. He is about fifty years old and married. Metcalf, the gardener, is about fifty years of age, has a wife now in Chicago, and is himself a native of New York.

FAIR WILL BE SCREENED

Pearman Film Company, of Richmond, Announces Motion-Pictures Are to Be Taken.

Motion-pictures of the Virginia State Fair, which opens here tomorrow at the Fair Grounds, will be filmed by the Pearman Film Company, of Richmond, and flashed on the screen of a theater here Thursday night, it was announced last night by one of the officials of the company.

Practically every attraction will be cinematographed, and the 1,000-foot reel will include the thousands of exhibits of various character that will fill the showrooms and stalls. In fact, it is the intention of the picture company to reproduce the fair for the first three days. The pictures will be shown on Richmond screens for three days and nights.

The same company announced that pictures would also be taken of the ceremonies relative to the unveiling of the Jackson equestrian monument here on October 11, which would be ready for the screen the following Monday night. Both of the pictures will be shown all over the State after being presented to Richmond theaters.

AMENDMENTS TO FOOD ACT SENT BACK TO COMMITTEE

Speaker Gillett Rules Senate Rider Concerning Fuel Rentals Was Not a Part Thereof.

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 4.—Amendments to the food control act, extending the law to clothing and providing penalties for hoarding and profiteering, were sent back to conference today by the House after Speaker Gillett had ruled that the Senate rider concerning fuel rentals in the District of Columbia was not in order as a part of the legislation.

The amendments, excepting the rent section, were urged by President Wilson as a part of the government's

Man Sought by Mob in Knoxville, Tenn., Alms to Appeal Case to Supreme Court.

(By Associated Press.)

KNOXVILLE, TENN., Oct. 4.—Maurice Mays, negro, was found guilty today of the murder August 28 of Mrs. Bertie Lindsey. An attempt to lynch Mays soon after his arrest resulted in riots here, during which several persons were killed, many wounded and the county jail damaged.
Mays protests his innocence and an appeal probably will be taken to the State Supreme Court.
